TRANSITIVE AND INTRANSITIVE VERBS

What is a transitive verb? A transitive verb requires an object in the form of a noun or pronoun to complete its meaning. This object answers to the questions "whom or what."

Example: The students write composition.

What do the students write? Composition.

Peter loves Mary.

Who (m) does Peter love? Mary.

Formula: Subject + Verb + Object

What is an intransitive verb? An intransitive verb is one that does not require an object to complete its meaning. The sentence may end with the verb, an adjective, or an adverb.

Let's see if you can identify the verbs in the following examples. Draw a line under the verb and in the blank space, write transitive or intransitive.

1. The math professor explains the lesson. _____

2. I drive my car to work everyday. _____

3. Many students sleep late on the weekends. _____

4. I have finally got her license. _____

5. Does your family live in Minnesota? _____
